Checks can be made out to Unidos en Cristo #171 or #172.

Address your palanca to: Men of Unidos en Cristo #171 or Women of Unidos En Cristo #172

WANTED: PALANCA ANGELS and PRAYER WARRIORS – Churches, large and small groups, renewal groups and all individuals with a loving heart and a willingness to pray are needed to help provide palanca for our sister Cursillo communities across the country and around the world. Become a “Palanca Angel” and adopt a Cursillo community. All you need to do is support their weekends with prayer and written palanca. All the information you need will be sent to you when you contact Larry Bennett by email at palanca@prodigy.net or write to him at 8950 Audubon Road, Chanhassen, MN 55317.

Did you attend United Cursillo #1 through #10? Do you still have a team or weekender list from one of the these weekends? Will you share it? Over the years the team and weekender lists from these first few weekends in the United community seem to have been lost. We are trying to find copies. If you have one, please share it by sending it to the corrections address on the back page of this Palanca Press (U.S. mail, email or FAX).

Web Page Be sure to visit Unidos en Cristo on the WEB at www.unidosencristo.net. Please send any feedback to unidosencristo@mn.rr.com. You will see that the 4th Day button is password protected – this is where Team and Lay/Clergy Application Forms will be posted as well as 5th Day notices and other specific information for the 4th Day community. The password will be changed periodically and published in the Palanca Press. The current password is 4444444. Under the Contact Us you will see UEC Local Church Affiliations. Please check to see whether your church's web page is noted. If not, please send an email so we can add it.

Unidos en Cristo Database Changing We are converting the 4th Day Community database to newer technology. Our goal is to mail the June Palanca Press from the converted database. With a database numbering 8,000, this is a huge time commitment and a very labor-intensive effort that has been in the works since August 2000. We wish to thank our Via de Cristo and Unidos en Cristo brothers and sisters in Christ who have been our mentors and have diligently worked toward this goal. We will make every effort to not lose anyone in the changeover; however, if you do not receive your JUNE Palanca Press by June 1, please contact us. You may use the correction form on the back of any Palanca Press or you may contact us via the web page.

20th Anniversary Celebration An estimated six to seven hundred people came together on February 3 to praise God for what he has done over the past 20 years through the Unidos en Cristo/United Cursillo Community of Minnesota. The goal was to give Him honor and glory and it was beautifully met. We were blessed to have members of the TEC Community perform The Champion – a musical drama that is a part of the TEC Weekends—as a part of the celebration. Many thanks to all who put so much time and effort into that day—your efforts showed in the details and in the results.

Convenor's Corner

DeColores Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I was up early this morning. One of my favorite things to do in the morning before I am ready to face the day is to sit in front of the big picture window with my morning cup of coffee and look out over our backyard. As my thoughts wandered, I remembered how pristine it looked out there a couple of times this winter after it had rained and then snowed on top of the frozen rain—everything was covered with a beautiful white. Don't you feel a little sorry for all those snowbirds who go south for the winter and never get the pleasure of witnessing such a spectacular creation that God painted for us to enjoy? Speaking of beautiful creations, God also created you and me to be just as beautiful in his eyes as the pristine white snow in my backyard. You see, in God's eyes we are all created different, just as each snowflake is different. No two are alike. Yet we humans choose to look at others that are not just like us and judge them – sometimes in not such beautiful terms. In Matthew 7:1-2 it says "Do not judge others, so that God will not judge you, for God will judge you the same way you judge others, and he will apply to you the same rules you apply to others." Do you think all those snowflakes look at each other and say, "you're not as pretty as I am"?

I had the unfortunate experience of witnessing some outbursts of anger between people recently. One incident involved a man at the airport who was behaving in a less than flattering way. He was screaming at his female companion (she was probably wishing she wasn't his companion). Anyway, the lady behind me said, "looks like he could use a course in anger management." Another incident involved a woman berating her husband unmercifully. While I was remembering those two incidents along with a couple of other displays of anger I witnessed, I started to wonder about what causes us to be so impatient with others that we become that angry. Perhaps it has something to do with judging each other and placing expectations on them that are unrealistic. Or do we put higher expectations on ourselves than we can ever live up to and then look to others to blame?

One morning last summer I parked my car and started walking toward Caribou Coffee. I was in a hurry and not watching my step when I stepped on a crab apple that was lying on the sidewalk. My foot slipped as I squashed the apple under my shoe and I almost fell. In my anger I thought, why don't they get rid of those messy trees? Every year during late summer the crab apple trees along Lake Street in Wayzata drop their fruit. Every day the sidewalks must be swept. You have to continually watch your step. It's a mess! Then I thought, what would this street look like without those trees? They provide lush shade in a small amount of space. Their rich green color dotted with tiny sparks of red makes the street beautiful. And in the winter when they're decorated with little white lights they add bright cheer to the cold, dark days. All in all, I'd say it's worth putting up with the crab apples.

Sometimes we react to the people in our lives the same way I did to those trees that morning. When we experience the "fallout" from their sins we have a tendency to think, why can't I just get rid of this person? When we take that attitude we miss all the beauty that person has to offer. We fail to see the blessing they are in our life because we're looking only at the mess their sin has made. Instead we need to look at them through the eyes of love because love covers a multitude of sins. When Jesus died on the cross, his loving sacrifice paid for all our sins. Now God looks at us through "rose-colored glasses" stained with the blood of Christ and he sees only beauty. But you and I need to remember that regardless of how God sees us, others have to step around our sin fallout from time to time. We need to put on those same rose-colored glasses that God wears when we look at the people around us so we don't focus on the fallout from their sins but rather on their real beauty and the blessing they are to us and to others. Then we can be patient with them as we occasionally have to step carefully around the mess they've made because of sin. We need to let love cover over that multitude of sins and appreciate all the other blessings of the sometimes-messy people in our lives.

Enjoy the love of God in your day, every day.

Bolivia Connection—This summer Shel and Sharon Groff will serve as the rector and rectora of the first Via de Cristo weekends in Bolivia. Please pray for them as they seek to bring God's message of grace to the communities they've befriended in Bolivia. You may email them a note of encouragement at ssgroff@mail.megalink.com and/or support them financially by sending a check payable to Via de Cristo to: Via de Cristo, 10815 Thomas Ave. S., Bloomington, MN 55431 (write "Bolivia" in the memo area of your check.) Your contribution is tax deductible and will be multiplied many times as the "Way of Christ" is experienced by the Bolivian people.

Team Covenant - Unidos en Cristo

As a team member I enter into a covenant with other team members to provide a grace-filled experience of Jesus Christ for the participating weekenders. Therefore, I pledge to the best of my ability and with God's help:

- to model a Christian lifestyle, using God's word as my guide,
- to maintain a team spirit, and
- to prayerfully support the leadership of the Rector/Rectora and Spiritual Directors during the months of preparation and the weekend itself.

I understand that the focus of Unidos en Cristo weekends must be on the weekenders so I am willing to set aside my individual preferences for the good of the team and for a weekend that gives glory to God.
