Joy of Giving

Since you get more joy out of giving joy to others, you should put a good deal of thought into the happiness that you are able to give.

— Eleanor Roosevelt

Please mail your palanca one week prior to the weekend so that it is received in time to be delivered to each weekend.

We all know how critical prayer is. Those who cannot physically support the weekend are encouraged to pray wherever they are. Brief ‘arrow’ prayers may be made whenever God brings the weekend to mind. If you can, join the UEC Weekend Prayer Vigil. Click the Palanca button on the left side of our website home page and choose the time you would like to pray (weekends through 2006 are posted). Prayer tips are also available.

**** CHURCH LIAISONS' MEETING ****

Sunday, January 29, 3:00 p.m. at Colonial Church of Edina

Gather with other liaisons before the women's Clausura. Get to know each other, ask questions, and share tips on how you can get others in your church to help strengthen your UEC community.

Special Palanca has been requested! Can you help?

We need help transporting our UEC Trailers to and from host churches. If you have a one-ton truck equipped with electric brakes, and are occasionally available to pull a trailer from or to the metro storage location (ideal transfer times, minimizing on-site inconveniences for host churches, are the Wednesday evening or Thursday morning preceding the men's weekend and the Sunday night or Monday following the women's weekend), please contact Bob Fallat, UEC Supplies Coordinator, at fallat@unidosenristo.com or 952-938-3903. He'll add your name to a list of those who are able and willing.

Quick inspirations for the New Year:

- † What on earth are you doing for heaven's sake? (from a rollo)
- † Invite all people to a life in Christ. (from a church's mission statement)
- † Alleviate pain, restore health, and extend life. (from a corporate mission statement)
(Isn't that what Jesus did?) (Take your faith to work with you.)
- † May we practice the radical love of Jesus Christ. May we go out and compel (urge irresistibly or invite compellingly) others to join our community. (from a sermon)
- † The two best prayers I know:
"Help me, help me, help me." and "Thank you, thank you, thank you." (Anne Lamott)
- † Christ is counting on us. (from your UEC cross; does it hang close to your heart?)

In Loving Memory

We joyfully celebrate the life and resurrection of each friend-in-Christ who has entered the 5th Day.

De Colores, Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Looking forward to 2006 --

As I write this I am thinking about Christmas less than a week away, not focused on wrapped gifts under the tree, but the gift God gave us wrapped only in swaddling clothes. Awesome is the only descriptive word I can come up with when I think that God “cared enough to send the very best”, to enter our world as He did; to model how we are to live a meaningful, fulfilling life; to endure our pains, and to then surrender His life for our sake. As if that wasn't enough, He demonstrated that mortal life is not the end, but just the transition. What greater gift could we ever want?!

When we think of such a gift, we are saddened to think of all the people around us who at one time or another accepted and acknowledged Jesus as their Savior, but drifted away from a personal relationship in the busyness of their lives or some other reason. They may feel something lacking in their lives and their Christian walk, but can't identify what it is.

If you're like most of our 4th Day community, you know that an Unidos weekend can be the catalyst to help their head knowledge reach their heart. In 2006, I hope you will take the opportunity to make the specific effort to “make a friend, be a friend and bring a friend” to a “best ever” weekend. Your church's liaison can be of assistance in processing the paperwork, telling you the dates of the weekends and providing any guidance you need in approaching potential weekenders. Co-sponsoring weekenders can also be a rewarding experience.

For those of you who helped make the November weekends a reality, we thank you. As you heard, if you attended one the clausuras in Rochester, those weekends were life-changing for many of the weekenders. We especially appreciated the special support of the teams and 4th Day community in rallying to sponsor weekenders there, then supporting them with prayers, palanca and presence.

Update on the long-range task force. This team of dedicated men and women has met bi-weekly this fall to construct structured questionnaires for extensive telephone surveys of council members, clergy and liaisons. Task force members, council members and volunteer liaisons are now involved in contacting a large random sampling of the clergy – both active and inactive in UEC -- and liaisons, to get feedback on a broad range of their perceptions. Survey results will help the task force formulate suggestions and draw up proposals that should provide significant guidance for the long-range growth and direction of our UEC movement. We are indebted to everyone involved in this major endeavor.

I pray you will continue to grow in your faith and reflect His love to others. May 2006 be a special year for you and Unidos en Cristo.

Serving Him together,

Clark Duffey, Convenor

CLAUSURA ETIQUETTE

Clausura attendance is limited to persons who have attended a Cursillo (UEC, VDC, Walk to Emmaus, etc.) weekend. Teens Encounter Christ (TEC) participants may also attend. It is inappropriate to bring children and infants because of the long worship service, and because seeing children at the Clausura can be painful for weekenders who are missing their own children.

Recorders, cameras and video cameras are not allowed at Clausuras. Cell phones and pagers should be turned off or set on “vibrate”.

Please remember that we are guests of the host church, and that we are entrusted with the care of a large part of their facility. Always treat their “home” with care.

4TH DAY MARKET

Large-print songbooks ($20), “Christ is Counting on You” crosses ($5) and Renewal Guideline cards ($1) will be available at a table outside the sanctuary on Sunday, January 29, just prior to the evening serenade and during the early portion of the Clausura. Cash only (checks made payable to Unidos en Cristo are acceptable).
