The Symbol of our Faith

You'll notice throughout this issue of the Palanca Press a variety of crosses, some with flowers, some with thorns, some old-fashioned, some modern, some simple and some elaborate. A pastor could likely give an in depth history about how the cross came to be the symbol of our faith, perhaps even a sermon about what seeing a cross should invoke within us.

For the purpose of this space, I encourage you to notice the crosses here, those you wear around your neck, those on top of your churches, even those tattooed on the arm of a biker you see at the next Clausura. Let this question become a point of meditation for you in the weeks to come:

What does the cross mean to you?

New Churches

UEC would like to welcome the following churches. These have become involved in UEC since September of 2007.

Discovery UMC, Chanhassen, MN
Faribault Evangelical Free, Faribault, MN
Salem Baptist, New Brighton, MN
True North Church, Cannon Falls, MN
Woodland Presbyterian, Babbit, MN

As of June 2008, the pastor of the church is not required to attend for the church to become a UEC church. We do ask for the pastor's blessing for UEC to be involved in the church. Do you know a church that should be on this list?

Prayer Vigil

Prayer is the most important element of a UEC Weekend. When people pray, the communication lines between God and the team, God and the weekenders, God and the host church remain open and fluid. Forgetting about the "prayer" piece of a weekend is akin to forgetting that God's presence is what the weekend is all about.

Please commit to prayer by joining the weekend Prayer Vigils. Go to www.unidosencristo.com. Click on "4th Day" and then "Prayer Vigil". You can input your e-mail address and choose a one-hour time slot to pray. You'll receive a reminder e-mail, prayer tips and specific requests from the weekend team.

Sponsor Tips

The Simplicity of Sponsorship

*It's this simple:
"UEC changed my life.
Would you like to go?
I would like to sponsor you.
I think you'll like it
very much."*

Gluten Free Communion

At all team meetings and on UEC weekends, as well as at all Clausuras and weekend Ultreyas, there will be a gluten-free communion station available. We do not want anyone to skip this important sacrament due to gluten allergies or intolerances.

4th Day Market

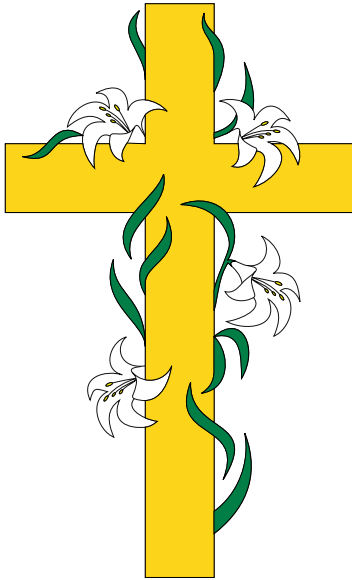

The 4th Day Market will be open before every Clausura with the following items for purchase:

Songbooks $20 Crosses: $5
Renewal Cards FREE

DVD packets, DVDs and brochures will also be available. These are free of charge. Donations are welcome.

In Loving Memory

We joyfully celebrate the life and resurrection of each friend in Christ who has entered the Fifth Day:

Cleon Anderson, UEC 28, Hennepin UMC (Jim)
Elayne Ballard, UEC 94, Hennepin UMC (Jerry)
Michelle Clark, UEC 190, Westwood Community (Kevin)
Bonham Cross, UEC 50, Hennepin UMC (Marie)
Jean Dando, UEC 40, Southcross Community
Boyd Slatter, UEC 63, Peace Presbyterian (Ruth)
David Tellett, UEC 50, Hennepin UMC (Lu)
Elmon Ward, UEC 146, Hope Presbyterian (Alma)

If you know of a Cursillista who has entered his or her 5th Day, please e-mail information to the Palanca Press editor (walker@unidosencristo.com) for inclusion in the newsletter. Others in the 4th Day Community may have no other way of knowing that their friends in Christ have entered His presence. If you provide the name and address of family, a sympathy card will also be mailed to the family. Memorials given in memory of Cursillistas will be acknowledged in the Palanca Press, unless otherwise requested. Send them to the Unidos en Cristo Council Treasurer: Teresa VanBatavia, 404 Union Terrace Lane N., Plymouth, MN 55441.

Weekender Reviews

“My heart was broken this weekend. God came and shattered the shell I thought was protecting my heart and said, ‘With me, we can make your heart better.’”

“I saw God here.”

“It is profound, the kind of love focused on us this weekend. I felt it a week before arriving. You can only resist an outpouring of love like this for a short time.”

“The burdens of my sin have been lifted. I am no longer a slave to sin. Through Christ, I am free.”

“When someone said, ‘God Loves You and So Do I’, I couldn’t believe that all these strangers love me and have prayed for me. God showed me true grace.”

Read the Palanca Press ONLINE!

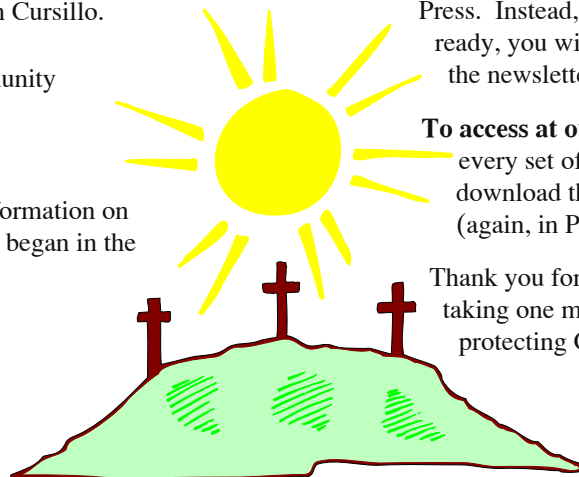

- It is environmentally friendly—no paper.
 - It saves UEC 'loads' of money.
- You receive your Palanca Press earlier.
 - The online version is in COLOR!

We are asking everyone in the UEC 4th Day Community that has internet access to begin receiving the Palanca Press by e-mail or by accessing it online at our web site.

To receive by e-mail: Send your e-mail address to unidosencristo@comcast.net. Marie Wilson, Database Coordinator, will stop mailing you the paper copy of the Palanca Press. Instead, when each issue of the Palanca Press is ready, you will receive an e-mail with a PDF copy of the newsletter attached.

To access at our web site: About two weeks before every set of weekends, check our web site to download the latest issue of the Palanca Press (again, in PDF format).

Thank you for your help in saving UEC money and taking one more step towards living green and protecting God's great creation!

Council Quarters

Convenor's Corner

The UEC Council seeks to create balance in our site selection process. In the metro area, locations for UEC weekends are rotated between the North, South, East, and West regions. Out state locations are chosen every other year. The goal is to create a variety of locations with the broadest possible appeal to individual weekenders and sponsors. To judge the popularity of each location, the Council will begin recapping the percentage of weekenders attending from each of the major regions as described previously in this article. This will appear in the Palanca Press in the section that lists the new 4th Day members who attended the previous set of weekends. After the data has been gathered, if there is a clear preference for certain areas, the Council will attempt to hold more weekends in those areas.

So, if you would like to see more weekends held in your area, sponsor more weekenders from your area. As you know, there has been room on all of the recent weekends for additional participants. A UEC weekend is a wonderful gift. Please give it to someone you care about. Albert Lea is the out state site for 2008. There will not be another weekend held outside of the metro area until 2010. Applications are being accepted now. Be a sponsor. Make a friend, be a friend, lead a friend to Christ. Christ is counting on you.

Dick Hamblin, Convenor

Promotional Materials Help Needed

The Long Range Task Force (2005) made the recommendation that UEC update it's promotional materials. We have two new brochures, a DVD, and various sponsorship packets. Help is needed to manage these materials. Requires storing of materials, packet stuffing and mailing materials upon request. For more information, please call Kathy Walker at 612-483-6151. Thank you.

New 4th Day Signs

Many of you have been around UEC long enough to have watched our wonderful, red, heart-shaped "4th Day" signs either disappear or deteriorate over the years. Those signs were made for us by Ernie Aden, a 4th Day member. Ernie noticed that the signs were looking a little shabby and has graciously put his hands to work again and made six new signs. If you see Ernie, give him a warm thank you! Thank you, Ernie!

Large Print Bibles

In memory of her brother, Duane, Donna Osthus has donated two beautiful large print Bibles for use in the Rollo Room for Bible Enthronement. Thank you Donna.

Safe Candles

We'd like to thank Shane and Kathy Vail (Hope Presbyterian) for their donation of 48 safe candles. These are safe, battery operated candles that look beautifully real. Thank you Shane & Kathy!

Inspiration

The Wooden Bowl

A frail old man went to live with his son. The family ate together at the table. But the grandfather's shaky hands and failing sight made eating difficult. Peas rolled off his spoon onto the floor. Milk spilled on the tablecloth. The son became irritated with the mess. So they set a small table in the corner where Grandfather ate alone from a wooden bowl that wouldn't break.

When the family glanced in Grandfather's direction, sometimes he had a tear in his eye as he sat alone. The four-year-old grandson watched it all in silence. One evening before supper, the father noticed his son playing with wood scraps on the floor. He asked the child sweetly, 'What are you making?' Just as sweetly, the boy responded, 'Oh, I am making a little bowl for you and Mama to eat your food in when I grow up.'

Though no word was spoken, the son knew what must be done. That evening he took his father's hand and gently led him back to the family table.

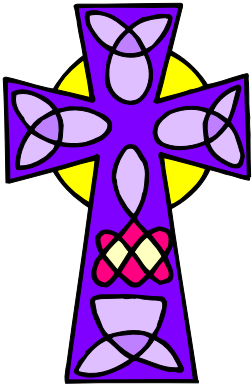

This story has spoken to me for months on so many levels. Perhaps the deepest impact made has been about 'judgements' that I make about those around me and how I exclude certain people based on my judgements, especially within the body of Christ, my family. Maybe someone I know has 'dropped peas' by drinking too much alcohol and I had to pick up the pieces. Maybe another has spilled milk by talking about me behind my back and I had to clean up the rumors. So, in my hurt, while I have not sent them away, I have made a table for them in the corner of my heart, where they can no longer bother me ... and there, they eat alone.

I realized I was 'making my own bowl' and unless I changed how I see my brothers and sisters in Christ, I would one day be at a table in the corner eating from my bowl - alone.

We may not all agree on the exact same theology or church policy. Still, as God's children, we need to remember to love and be unified enough to be able to break bread together at the same table ... as the family of God.

Food for thought, Kathy Walker
