Convenor's Corner

By Craig Stockel, convenor@unidosencristo.com

By the time you read this in your inbox or on-line at the UEC website, we'll have passed through the Christmas season and the new year will have started with the usual fanfare and revelations that most new years do.

Normally I might pick a single topic on which to focus, but I have several to which I would like to call to your attention. And then I will finish with a challenge and my hopes in this new year 2015.

THIS 'n' THAT

Here are three quick items I would like you to know about:

- Annual Report – the content may not be gripping, but as a part of a not-for-profit requirement, the annual report for 2013-14 is posted in the 4th Day area of the UEC website. It calls your attention to some of the activities and discussions we had at the Council level during the year, as well as gives you the expenses and revenues over expenses report.

- Website Update – improvements to the website in the past year includes some "buttons" you may click on to report a 4th Day member who has moved to the 5th Day, or to update your information for the UEC database. Links to other Cursillo expressions have been reinstated in the 4th Day area as well. Take a few moments and wander through the updated website.

- Database Overhaul – after a lot of "gnashing of teeth" about outdated database info as well as a database that was cumbersome to access, the Council will be working with some 4th Dayers to help recreate the database structure to make it not only more user-friendly, but also more easily updated. Stay tuned.

- Manuals Updated – a tedious project as you can imagine but we have regained some traction on updating the weekend manuals.

Kitchen was completed a year or so ago, and 4th Day is now complete. Rector/a manuals have received the final touches, and Palanca is now undergoing a major makeover. More exciting (at least for Council and those who update the manuals) is that the manuals will be available in The Box and more easily updated going forward.

A CHALLENGE TO ALL

Over the past year or two, there seems to be two areas that are constantly a source of angst and frustration as we try to staff the weekends. The first is in the area of Clergy. The second is the area of musicians.

Regarding the Clergy challenge, those responsible for finding the Spiritual Directors for the weekend seem to encounter an incredible amount of frustration trying to draw from the dwindling supply of SD's who are available to work a weekend. There could be any number of reasons for this tightening pool of candidates.

The 4th Day community could be a GREAT help to the clergy coordinators if they would encourage – or even boldly ask – their own pastor, assuming they have been through their own weekend, to raise their hand (proactively) to make themselves available to serve as an SD on an upcoming weekend. This would be a refreshing change from the clergy coordinators having to make "umpteen" calls to a pool of people smaller than what is available when the lay positions are being filled.

AND, if your pastor has yet to go through a UEC weekend, prayerfully consider ways to get him or her to a weekend to experience the affirming love and grace that washes over every weekend.

As for the musician challenge, there is a known pool of musicians that receive calls over and over for Rollo Room, Palanca Team, and serenade activities. As we reconstruct the database and how we gather information, we KNOW we will find more musicians.

BUT, if you have a musical talent and would like to share it on an upcoming weekend, PLEASE make sure you pro-actively raise your hand by completing a team application (or reaching out to the 4th Day team to serve on the Sunday afternoon serenade). It seems that the same musicians get called over and over again and we don't want to burn 'em out, just like our clergy.

A HOPE

As this new year unfolds, we have one weekend close to happening, and two more scheduled. It would be a delightful "problem" to have to figure out how to accommodate full weekends. In recent years, "full" weekends have been hit 'n' miss. Many of you can remember when there were waiting lists to attend. Indeed, for many, the timing of one's attendance has a lot to do with God's timing.

But I'm hope-filled that all of the UEC 4th Day community will take note of the weekends scheduled and be more intentional about inviting individuals in their churches to experience the love and grace THEY experienced on their weekends. A waiting list, coupled with some awesome weekends, more clergy serving, and an enhanced list of available musicians ... that is my hope for 2015.

Bathe that all in prayer and I know great things will continue to happen through Unidos en Cristo in Minnesota as you let God use each of you.

Weekends need Wall Palanca

Do you remember the Wall Palanca during your weekend? All renewal groups, individuals and prayer groups are encouraged to shower these Weekenders not only with our prayers but with Wall Palanca.

Wall Palanca can be as simple as a card or a decorated poster. The main thing is for you to express God's love to the Weekenders.

You may send your Wall Palanca by mail to: UEC Palanca Coordinator, Dave Webb, P.O. Box 658, Big Lake, MN 55309 or e-mail to: dwebb1162@gmail.com

The deadline for the coming weekends is February 23, 2015. If you have any questions, contact David Webb at: dwebb1162@gmail.com

#270 weekend recap

By Lynn Durner, UEC #270 Women's Rectora

UEC #270 was (I am not going to say "the best weekend ever," because they all are just that) an amazing weekend designed and directed by God.

As the team was called and came together, the problems began. Serious illnesses. Three of us lost parents during the months leading up to the weekend and another parent was put into hospice care just days before the weekend. There were three team diagnoses of cancer. Serious personal issues for individual team members exploded. It seemed that "someone" was trying to get our focus aimed elsewhere.

The prayer warriors were very busy holding this team up before our God. And He, as always, was faithful. He carried us through all of the storms set in our path and planted us on firm ground.

What a weekend we had! What I saw from the leadership table was a group of beautiful women who opened themselves to accept what God had for each of them during the weekend. And, oh, my! What gifts He brought to all of us! There was such transparency among table groupings. Such love grew in that Rollo Room and in the Chapel. How do you sum up such a weekend? I certainly don't have the words for it. But what I observed was this:

- Love
- Joy
- Unity
- Walls falling
- Physical and spiritual healing
- Precious tears
- Belly laughs
- Open hearts
- Grace
- Grace
- Grace

UEC #270 really was a grace filled weekend. What more is there to say. God filled that place and did His work in all of the women there. It was a joy and a privilege to be a part of His work.

#269 weekend recap

By Mark Clark, UEC #269 Men's Rector

"But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord." Joshua 24:15b

I will not soon forget the UEC #269 weekend. (Dare I say it was the best weekend ever?)

When I was asked to lead weekend #269, I had in my mind the team I wanted to assemble. As it turned out, God had his own plan. I was quickly reminded that this was His weekend, not mine. I was here to serve him. As a result, we had a team that was focused on serving God, the weekenders and each other. This also resulted in new friendships and renewed friendships. For those who have not served or not recently served, I highly recommend you do so. Remember, Christ is counting on us.

We were blessed with a wonderful group of weekenders. It was a small, intimate group that quickly bonded and was very engaging and receptive to the powerful Rollos presented that weekend. We were blessed with wonderful Rollistas who faithfully delivered God's message to the weekenders.

As we reflect on the Christmas season, we are focused on the blessed gift that our Lord has given us, his Son, Jesus Christ. During the UEC #269, we were also reminded of God's other gift to us, the gift of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit was ever present throughout the weekend. Satan tried many times to disrupt the weekend, be it illnesses, a broken refrigerator and even a fire alarm just before the Sunday Serenade, but the Holy Spirit protected us though it all.

Through God's Holy Spirit and with the help of a faithful team that served him, I was very pleased to hear that one of our weekenders gave his heart to Christ and another renewed his commitment to the church. Praise be to God.

Weekends #271 and #272 are coming up quickly with the men beginning their weekend on Thursday, February 26, and the women on Thursday, March 5, at Faith Covenant

Church, Burnsville.

Prayer is a vital part of a UEC weekend. A prayer vigil by the UEC 4th Day community connects the community to the weekend and strengthens the Weekenders, team and the community alike. Have you prayed for a Weekender by name and then felt more connected to him or her as they share their UEC experience at the Clausura? Prayer connects us to God and to each other.

The prayer vigil may be different than you have remembered from the past. When you sign up either for a specific hour or throughout the weekend, you will receive regular updates for those four days.

These updates will act as a reminder to bathe the weekend in prayer and also give a glimpse of what is happening at the moment.

Please help blanket both weekends with prayer by following the instructions below.

How to participate in the Prayer Vigil:

1. Log on to www.unidosencristo.com
2. Click on "4th Day" on the bar under "Unidos en Cristo"
3. Click on "Weekend Prayer Vigil"
4. Scroll down to the Sign Up section and enter your name, phone number, e-mail address and then sign up for Weekend #271 or #272.
5. You may choose a one-hour time slot to pray, or select the entire weekend.

6. Click on "Submit Prayer Times"

7. Click on "Prayer Vigil Tips" on the sign-up page for helpful suggestions and Scripture readings

You will receive reminder emails throughout the weekend.

If you have questions, contact the Prayer Vigil Coordinator for the weekend you are committing to pray for. Thank you for your support and prayers.

THANK YOU

By Rich Carlson, Trailer Supplies Coordinator

On behalf of the UEC Council and the Fourth Day Community, we would like to extend our thank you and gratitude to John Titus and family for hosting the supply trailers the better part of the last four years.

As of this fall, the trailers have been moved into the metro area. With that said, the UEC would also like extend our thanks to the community at Christ Community Church of Excelsior for agreeing to host our trailers.

Meet your council members

Steve Wilson Convenor Advisor

I attended Unidos en Cristo #101 in February, 1994, as a Weekender. Since then I have worked a number of teams in a variety of positions. I have served in the Rollo Room, Palanca, Kitchen and 4th Day.

My current responsibility on the UEC Council is Convenor Advisor. I work with the Convenor and assist him in any way that I can. I have also supported the council for the last ten years by assisting in the training of the Rollo Room Leadership Teams during Day 2 training.

My weekend experience in Christian Living was the beginning of a period where I said "Yes" to a number things that I probably would not have considered in the past. Since my weekend experience I was elected to the council of Faith Covenant Church and served as its President for two years. I served on the Search Committee for a new Senior Pastor and continue to be active in the Usher ministry.

I feel that this is what the Unidos en Cristo experience is all about. During the three days that we spend as a Weekender we are prepared to move our Christian faith to a new level which allows us to experience things that we would have previously thought were not possible.

I would encourage everyone who has experienced a weekend to take what you have learned and use it in new ways which honor and please God.

Mike Peterson Liaison Coordinator

I attended Unidos en Cristo #229 and since attending that weekend I have served on the Palanca, Rollo Room, Kitchen (chicken), and 4th Day teams.

My job title is Liaison Coordinator, but from the start I have thought that Liaison Liaison would be a better name. In order to better understand my role, it probably would be helpful to know what a liaison is. A liaison plays the shepherd role in a 4th Day community. They typically organize Ultreyas and handle communication and other things with the intent of building relationships and promoting UEC within their community. My job on council is to be an intercessor on both sides. If liaisons need information or guidance from council, I'm the guy. On the other hand if council has something for the liaisons, well I'm still the guy.

The kick-start for me on my weekend was the moment my head met my heart and connected the logical with the emotional and everything made sense. I could go through a list of things that I have done since but for me the important thing is not my accomplishments, but that I am able to live a life where it is not a matter of how to incorporate Christianity with my daily activities, it is now impossible to separate the two.
